

The Imagine Museum is an independent 501 c3 nonprofit organization dedicated to telling the story of the Contemporary American Studio Glass Movement. It has no affiliation to any religious sector or other organization. Its mission is to inspire, uplift and educate through creativity and imagination.

Statement on Non-discrimination

It is the policy of Imagine Museum to provide an environment free from harassment or discrimination in the treatment of individuals with respect to employment with the Museum and admission or access to Museum facilities, programs, activities, or in the manner in which they are provided. Consistent with this principle of inclusivity and applicable laws, The Imagine Museum does not permit harassment or discrimination on the basis of race, color, national origin, religion, age, disability, marital or partnership status, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, gender expression, genetic information, pregnancy, citizenship status, military service or discharge status, arrest record, or any other classification protected by applicable federal, state, or local law. The Imagine Museum is committed to maintaining a non-discriminatory environment free from intimidation, harassment, or bias based upon these grounds.
